

Homefront Education Program

FREE for family members, partners and significant others of military Service Members and Veterans living with:

Depressive disorder
Bipolar disorder
Schizophrenia and schizoaffective disorder
Borderline personality disorder
Anxiety disorder and obsessive compulsive disorder
Post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD)
Co-occurring brain and addictive disorders

A series of six sessions that help families understand and support military Service Members and Veterans living with mental health conditions while maintaining their own well-being. The course is taught by a team of trained NAMI volunteers—family members who know what it's like to have a relative living with one of these brain disorders. There is no cost to participate in the NAMI Homefront Education Program.

We think you'll be pleased by how much assistance the program offers.
Please call for more information and to register.

Classes Start: Thursday, September 29, 2016, 6:00 - 8:30 pm and continue weekly until: Thursday, November 3, 2016
